Provide the details in annexure (annexure need to be numbered as i, ii,iii).*

Annex. III

The college has practiced “Clean & healthy India” and Assembly as best practices in the college.

(1) “Clean and healthy India”

Objectives of the practice:-

- (i) To realize importance of cleanliness and hygiene.
- (ii) To improve the social and civil responsibilities among the students.
- (iii) To improve health awareness
- (iv) To make clean and healthy college premises and adopted villages.
- (v) To facilitate the responsibility community and social work among the students.
- (vi) To develop personality of students through participation and leadership

Context:-

- (i) Construction of continuous counter trenches (CCT) in the adopted village
- (ii) Lectures on women empowerment.
- (iii) Cleaning of village
- (iv) Pink village drive through painting of Slogans and proverbs.
- (v) Digging soak pits.
- (vi) Special provision for waste management.

Practice in details:-

Clean and healthy India mission was organized by college in NSS special camp organised during 20th to 27th Jan. 2018 at Subhashnagar village, Tehasil Niphad. The mission was inaugurated by Smt. Sunita Takekar and guest and villages, Principal Dr. P.V.Rasal, NSS Programme officers and college staff and students were present in large number. The practices like CCT development, Pink village, Water management system, cleanliness drive, etc were performed in the special campaign. NSS volunteers made 58 soak pits, Solid waste management, and 70 houses from the village were painted with pink colour with public awareness messages and proverbs on the wall of the houses like “Mulgi shikali pragati zali” etc. During this mission Students of Microbiology checked Haemoglobin and blood groups of the Z.P. school students of Subhashnagar village. Finally the valedictory function was conducted in the presence of Hon. Dr. Nitin Karmalkar, Vice chancellor, Savitribai Phule Pune University along with volunteers and distinguished guests.

Success:-

Due to successful organization of the Special mission of NSS Camp Volunteers got confidence and knowledge of CCT and they are become more responsible towards cleanliness and water saving attitude. NSS volunteers understood the problems of the villagers due to interaction. They got happiness because they contributed for the betterment of their village development. Hon. Dr. Nitin Karmalkar has also appreciated the college for successful conduction of such campaign in the village. Many Government departments and NGOs visited the camp and contributed

(2) Staff and student's Assembly:-

Objectives of the practice:-

- (i) To develop unity among the students.
- (ii) To motivate sense of gratitude towards county
- (iii) To develop self esteem and sense of respect towards every citizen among students.
- (iv) Save papers and ink and declaration of oral notices instead of printed notices

Context:-

- (i) Organisation of Students assembly every day and recitation of prayer of great Marathi poet "Khara to Ekchi Dharma" and national anthem. During the assembly staff and students are given various notices and information and they are also felicitated for achievement or outstanding work or victory in matches and competitions.
- (ii) The assembly fosters training in personality development.
- (iii) It also gives opportunity of sharing notices and instructions commonly.
- (iv) It helps in developing patriotism spirit, discipline, affiliation and unity among the students.
- (v) The assembly fosters brotherhood and sense of unity.

Practice in details:-

Our assembly starts with, - Gurur Bramha Gurur Vishnu Later on it is to be continuing with song "Khara to Ekachi Dharma" which implies the uniformity among the students belong to the same religion. It also showed good impact on the students' behaviour. During assembly all the students gathered together in a discipline at morning 11:00 am. Our assembly ends with National anthem with musical instruments. All the students and staff stand in a queue and closed their eyes during assembly. It is a kind of practice that fosters value education among staff and students.
